CHARLES A. GAULIN
343 North Wilton Street

Science Our Lady of Victory
"Charlie"

Behold our ambitious and enterprising Advertising Manager. With indefatigable perseverance and perfect confidence in the backing of the class, "Charlie" put the Burr and the Annual on a safe financial basis. His time, labor and money were spent without a thought. Day after day, week after week, he worked with no thought but to make the school's magazine and year book the greatest successes in the history of West Catholic. In addition to this, "Charlie" stepped right along in his studies and enjoyed a great deal of popularity among his teachers and classmates. No reasonable doubt of future failure of one with such a head for business can ever gain foothold in our minds. Best wishes for good luck, Charlie.
